NEWS FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Market in Happy Camp to become a Ray's Food Place

Medford based C&K Market will acquire Happy Camp location this October.

Medford, OR (October 2024) – Kingfisher Market serving the town of Happy Camp California will soon become Ray's Food Place. C&K Market, Inc. parent company of Ray's Food Place will take the reins of the community market, with an expedited refresh of the store interior and décor planned for early 2025. Happy Camp is located on California State Route 96 along the Klamath River 70 miles west of Yreka. Targeted to re-open as Ray's on October 23, the newest Ray's location will offer their signature Certified Angus Beef program, fresh produce, a good selection of national and private brand products and outstanding service to the Happy Camp community.

"The communities of Happy Camp, Seiad Valley, and Somes Bar are a great fit within our company's core competencies of providing quality products, great service and good value to the local communities we serve", says Rocky Campbell, President and CEO.

Grand Opening festivities with a community BBQ, giveaways and special grand opening savings are planned.
